ARTICLE 3: GOVERNANCE

1 Bylaws

The affairs of The Organization shall be governed in accordance to these Bylaws.

ARTICLE 4: PURPOSE

1 Mission

The Mission of The Organization is to improve the quality of life of the peoples of the world through defining and promoting its values, including respect for universal human rights and including gender equity, and by fostering high standards of care in general practice/family medicine as a key component of high quality primary care by:

- promoting personal, comprehensive and continuing care for the individual and the family in the context of the community and society;
- promoting equity through the equitable treatment, inclusion and meaningful advancement of all groups of people, particularly women and girls, in the context of all health care and other societal initiatives;
- encouraging and supporting the development of academic organizations of general practitioners/family physicians;
- providing a forum for exchange of knowledge and information between Member Organizations, general practitioners/family physicians; and other primary care health professionals; and
- representing the policies and the educational, research and service provision activities of general practitioners/family physicians to other world organizations and forums concerned with health and medical care.

2 Objectives

The objectives of The Organization shall be to:

- .1 Support and facilitate the development of general practice/family medicine throughout the world, and advance the status of family doctors.
- .2 Represent the consensus view of Member Organizations in international and national fora.
- .3 Collect, collate and disseminate information concerning the educational, research and service provision aspects of general practice/family medicine.

ARTICLE 5: MEMBERSHIP

1 Eligibility and Classification

.1 The membership of The Organization shall consist of:

.1 Full Member Organizations

National organizations or a group of national organizations which are representative of general practitioners/family physicians of that country or those countries and a majority of whose constituent voting membership consists of general practitioners/family physicians who are legally registered to practice within that country or those countries. The voting membership of such organizations may include medical practitioners in training.

No component member of a Full Member Organization shall hold Full Membership in WONCA in its own right.

.2 Associate Member Organizations

National Organizations or a group of national organizations whose missions and objectives are consistent with those of WONCA and not eligible or do not seek Full Membership and of which the majority of the constituent voting membership are members of the recognized health professions as defined in these Bylaws.

.3 Direct Individual Members

Individual persons who are members of a recognized health profession and who support the Mission of The Organization and who desire affiliation.

.4 Academic Members

Academic Departments/Training Programs of general practice/family medicine which are actively involved in teaching or research, support the Mission of The Organization and desire affiliation with The Organization.

.5 Pro Tem Member Organizations

A national organization, body or other corporate entity whose missions and objectives are consistent with those of WONCA, and where the country has no organization eligible to be a Full Member organization or Associate Member organization, but where Council considers the body appropriate to hold a special category of membership.

Membership eligibility of Pro Tem Member Organizations is to be reviewed at each World Council meeting. If another organization from the same country as the Pro Tem Member Organization is approved as a Full Member Organization, then membership of the Pro Tem Member Organization will cease. Council will consider the need to continue the membership status of a Pro Tem Member Organization if another organization is approved as an Associate Member organization from the country in question.

2 Application

Applications for membership shall be made in accordance with the policies appropriate for the relevant membership category.

3 Termination of Membership

.1 Membership in The Organization shall terminate upon the occurrence of any of the following:

.1 Resignation.

.2 Failure to maintain membership requirements in accordance with the Organizational Policies.

.3 Default in the payment of dues to The Organization.

.1 When an application for Membership or Associate Membership is made by an organization which has ceased to be a member subsequent to this article, such application will be deemed to be not eligible until such time as all previously unpaid dues have been received by the Responsible Officer. Council, if it considers that the dues were unpaid for reasons which were extenuating, may declare the application to be eligible in respect of this clause, by waiving the outstanding unpaid dues.

.4 Revocation of Membership by the Council.

- .1 Any Member Organization or Officer of The Organization may file a written complaint against another Member Organization alleging that that organization's policy is no longer in accord with the provisions of Article 4 of the Bylaws. Such complaint must be filed with the Responsible Officer of The Organization and must state the conduct or policy complained of with reasonable particularity, and must be signed by the secretary and president of the Member Organization filing the complaint.
- .2 Upon receipt of the said complaint:
 - .1 the Responsible Officer shall cause a copy to be submitted by registered mail to a Complaints Committee of three persons appointed by the Council/Executive Committee who will review the complaint within six weeks of receipt of the complaint from the Responsible Officer to rule on the complaint.
 - .2 In the event that the complaint is deemed to have no merit, the Complaints Committee shall recommend to the Responsible Officer to reject the complaint giving valid reasons for doing so.
 - .3 If the complaint is deemed to have merit, the Complaints Committee shall request the Responsible Officer to write to the Honorary Secretary of the offending Member Organization to request an explanation and reply to the complaint within six weeks.
 - .4 The Complaints Committee shall review the reply from the offending Member Organization and recommend to the Responsible Officer its reasons for accepting or rejecting the explanation from the offending Member Organization.
 - .5 The Executive Committee may take any appropriate action within six months of such recommendation.
 - .6 Such action may be in the form of a warning, suspension or expulsion.
- .3 At the Council meeting which considers the complaint both the complainant and the respondent shall be given reasonable opportunity to be heard.
- .4 The complaint shall be considered by Council and after due consideration of the complaint any decision by Council regarding the complaint shall be by a two-thirds (2/3) majority of Members of Council.

ARTICLE 6: ORGANIZATIONS IN COLLABORATIVE RELATIONS

1 Eligibility

International organizations whose missions and objectives are consistent with those of the Organization and who are not eligible for, or who do not seek Full or Associate Membership.

2 Application

Applications for Collaborative Relations shall be made in accordance with the relevant policies.

3 Review of Relations

Organizations in Collaborative Relations may be reviewed by Council on the recommendation of Executive Committee.

ARTICLE 7: HONOURS AND AWARDS

1. The Organization may constitute such awards as it seems fit from time to time. The policies for the award of any awards shall be clearly documented by the Executive in the Organizational Policies and ratified by Council.

ARTICLE 8: DUES (Subscriptions) AND FUND RAISING

1 Annual Dues of Member Organizations

.1 Dues

- .1 Each Member Organization, including Full and Associate and Pro Tem Member Organizations, shall be required to pay annual dues which shall be recommended by Executive Committee, approved by Council at each of its regular meetings, and collected in accordance with the Organizational Policies.
- .2 Special assessments may be levied by an affirmative vote by two-thirds (2/3) of Council.
- .3 Regions may determine to levy annual dues from the constituent Member Organizations of the Region.

.2 Non-payment

- .1 Any Member Organization which has not paid its total dues or assessments at the time of the Regular World Meeting shall not be entitled to representation on Council or other Committees, and its members shall not be entitled to hold office in WONCA.
- .2 The Organization reserves the right to pursue, by any means available to it, the recovery of outstanding dues owed to it by a Member Organization whose membership has lapsed due to non-payment of dues.

2 Annual Dues of Direct Individual Members

Each Direct Individual Member shall be required to pay annual dues which shall be recommended by Executive Committee, prescribed by Council at each of its regular meetings, and collected in accordance with the Organizational Policies.

3 Annual Dues of Academic Members

Each Academic Member shall be required to pay annual dues which shall be recommended by the Executive Committee, prescribed by Council at each of its regular meetings, and collected in accordance with the Organizational Policies.

4 Raising of Funds

In furtherance of the Mission and Objectives of The Organization as contained in Article 4, The Organization may raise or acquire funds by way of commercial activities, levies, requests, donations, grants, bequests, legacies or in any other manner permitted by law.

5 Appeals Against the Level of Organization or Regional Dues

- .1 A Member Organization may apply to the Executive for a reduction in the level of dues payable, both to The Organization and to a Region.
- .2 The appeals process for reductions is detailed in the Organizational Policies.

ARTICLE 9: REGIONS

1 Regional Organization

The Member Organizations shall be grouped into Regions which shall at all times uphold the Mission and Objectives of The Organization in accordance with Article 4 of these Bylaws. In particular, each Region shall:

- .1 Provide a forum on a regional basis for interchange of information and knowledge.
- .2 Encourage the establishment of national academic organizations representing general practitioners/family physicians in countries of the region.

- .3 Support and encourage the development of the Member Organizations within the region.

ARTICLE 10: WORLD MEETINGS

1 Regular World Meetings

- .1 To fulfil the Mission and achieve the Objectives of The Organization, there shall be a regular world meeting of The Organization held not less often than every third calendar year, which shall include an ordinary meeting of Council, a meeting of the Executive Committee, a Scientific Conference and such other working party or committee meetings as shall be determined from time to time by Executive Committee or Council.
- .2 At each regular world meeting, Council shall reaffirm the time and place for the next regular world meeting and designate the time and place of the next subsequent regular world meeting.

ARTICLE 11: COUNCIL

1 General Powers and Responsibilities

- .1 The control and administration of The Organization shall be vested in the Council.
- .2 Consistent with the Mission and Objectives of the Organization, Council shall make every reasonable effort, including calls for nominations, to ensure that qualified women candidates for officer and other positions are identified.

2 Composition

- .1 Voting Members of Council
 - .1 The Council shall consist of the Officers of The Organization and one representative per country or group of national organizations (reference Article 5.1.1 of these Bylaws), except as provided in point 2.1.1.2 below.
 - .1 Officers of The Organization shall have one vote each at Council.
 - .2 All Full Member Organizations that were deemed to be voting members of Council during the 1996 to 1998 triennium shall retain their status as voting members provided that there is no change in or discontinuity of their membership.¹
 - .3 A Full Member Organization or a group of national organizations shall have votes according to the following schedule:

¹ Historical precedent created exceptions which now only apply to the American Academy of Family Physicians, USA and the Society of Teachers of Family Medicine, USA

Category A:	1 to 1,000 members	1 vote
Category B:	1,001 to 10,000 members	2 votes
Category C:	10,001 to 25,000 members	3 votes
Category D:	25,001 to 40,000 members	4 votes
Category E:	40,001 to 60,000 members	5 votes
Category F:	> 60,000 members	6 votes

Members are those reported by the Full Membership Organization and for whom the Full Member Organization has paid dues during the most recent billing period.

- .4 Full Member Organizations shall be entitled to only one (1) vote regardless of the membership numbers if the Executive Committee has provided a waiver or substantial reduction in the membership dues to the Full Member Organization.
- .5 Where a Member Organization or country has more than one vote, these votes may be cast for one or more options.

.2 Certification

- .1 Each Full Member Organization shall notify the Responsible Officer of the name and address of its Member of Council, certify the credentials of the appointee, and inform of any subsequent changes.
- .2 During the tenure of office, the Member of Council must be a full member of the Member Organization.

.2 Non-Voting Members of Council

- .1 The certified representatives of Associate Member Organizations, Pro Tem Member Organizations, or Organizations in Collaborative Relations, may attend meetings of Council, and have the privileges of the floor, but shall not have the right to vote.

.3 Observers

.1 Official Observers

Council shall admit as observers to its meetings:

- .1 Past Presidents of The Organization.
- .2 Immediate Past Regional Presidents.
- .3 Chairs and conveners of Committees, Working Parties, and Special Interest Groups elected under the provisions of the Organizational Policies.

- .4 The Editor of any journal, newsletter or other regular publication produced under the auspices of Council.
- .5 Presidents or official representative of a Member Organization.
- .2 Other Observers
 - .1 Academic Members or their certified representatives, and Direct Individual Members.
 - .2 The President, with the concurrence of Council, may invite other observers for part or whole of the meeting.
- .3 Privileges

All observers to Council shall have, at the discretion of the Chair, the privileges of the floor, but shall not have the right to vote.

3 Meetings of Council

- .1 Council shall hold its ordinary meeting at least once a year with the time and means determined by the Executive Committee, with input from Council when possible.
- .2 Extraordinary Meetings of Council may be called by the President with the concurrence of the Executive Committee, or upon the written request of not less than twenty percent (20%) of the current membership of Council, provided that written notice of such a meeting is given to members of Council not less than 120 days thereto.
- .3 General and Extraordinary Meetings of Council may be held in person, or by videoconferencing techniques, or any other means or combination thereof, as shall be determined from time to time based on the recommendation of Executive Committee and approved by Council.
- .4 In the event that members of Council participate in a Regular World Meeting or Extraordinary Meeting of Council by electronic means, every effort should be made to assure that they are able to participate and vote in a valid and confidential manner...

4 Voting

- .1 Except where a two-thirds (2/3) majority is required by these Bylaws, all matters shall be decided by a majority vote of voting members of Council present and those for whom a proxy has been granted.

- .2 The Chair is a voting member of Council and in the case of a tied vote, also has a casting vote.
- .3 A two-thirds (2/3) majority of the votes represented is required to adopt, amend, or repeal voting regulations that allow multiple voting rights.

5 Proxies

A Member Organization in good standing which is unable to send a Member of Council to a meeting of Council, may authorize, in writing, another Member Organization, through its appointed Member of Council, to represent it. No Member of Council may exercise proxy for more than one Member Organization.

6 Quorum

A quorum for the transaction of business of Council shall consist of a majority of the voting members of the Council.

7 Languages

The discussion at any meetings of Council shall be conducted in English.

8 Records

- .1 Minutes of each meeting of Council, in English, shall be kept by the Responsible Officer.
- .2 The minutes of each meeting shall be transmitted to each Member Organization, member of Council, and Organization in Collaborative Relations not later than sixty (60) days following the meeting of Council.

ARTICLE 12: OFFICERS OF THE ORGANIZATION

1 The Officers of The Organization shall be:

- .1 President
- .2 Immediate Past President (until the conclusion of one calendar year from the Council meeting when they commenced office as Immediate PastPresident)
- .3 President Elect
- .4 Regional Presidents
- .5 Three Members at Large from different countries, one of whom shall be appointed by the Executive Committee as Honorary Treasurer.
- .6 One Young Doctors' Representative

- 2 Council, at each of its regular meetings shall ratify the elections of the Regional Presidents and elect the other Officers of the Organization. In order that both genders are appropriately represented, at least 25% of the Officers shall be women and at least 25% of the Officers shall be men. If the number of Officers cause the calculation to result in the required number of being a fraction of a whole number, then the fraction shall be rounded up to the nearest whole number.
- 3 The Officers shall be elected from among bona fide members of Full Member Organizations and shall be certified in writing by a Member Organization indicating that the nominee is a recognized member of that Member Organization, has its support and endorsement, and agrees to accept the nomination.
- 4 Council shall determine the terms of office and duties, and the methods of election of the officers.

5 Terms of Office

- .1 The President, the Immediate Past President and the President Elect shall serve one term only in that particular office.
- .2 With the exception of the President, no Member of the Executive shall serve for more than four terms of office without a break of one term. A member who has been elected as President may remain on the Executive for the additional time required to serve as President elect, President and Immediate Past President.
- .3 Members at Large, Regional Presidents and the Young Doctors' Representative shall be eligible for election to that position for a maximum of two (2) consecutive terms of office.
- .4 The term of office of all Officers, other than the World President Elect and the Immediate Past World President, shall commence at the conclusion of the Regular World Conference at which election occurred and shall expire at the conclusion of the next Regular World Conference.
- .5 The term of office of the World President Elect shall commence at the conclusion of the Regular World Conference at which election occurred and shall expire at the conclusion of the second Regular World Meeting following the Regular World Conference at which election occurred.

The World President Elect shall succeed to the office of President at the expiration of the term of office of the President, or as provided for in Article 12.8.

- .6 The term of office of the Immediate Past World President shall commence at the conclusion of the term as World President and shall end at the conclusion of one calendar year from the Council meeting when they commenced office as Immediate Past President

After the conclusion of the term of office, the Immediate Past World President shall not be eligible for appointment as an officer of The Organization, but shall be eligible for appointment to Council or to any working party or committee of the Council or The Organization.

6 Nominations, Election and Appointments

- .1 World President Elect and Members at Large of the Executive Committee.
 - .1 Nominations for these Officers shall be made to the Nominations and Awards Committee in accordance with relevant policies.
 - .2 All nominations, however made, shall be certified in writing by a Member Organization indicating that the nominee is a recognized member of that Member Organization, has its support and endorsement, and agrees to accept the nomination.
- .2 Regional Presidents
 - .1 Council shall ratify a Regional President for each Region on the nomination of the Member Organizations of the Region.
 - .2 Such nominations must be supported by certified evidence that the nomination has the support of the majority of the Member Organizations of the Region.
 - .3 If a Regional President is elected to the office of President Elect, then another Regional President shall be elected and ratified for that Region in the same manner as the original appointee.
- .3 Young Doctors' Representative
 - .1 Nominations for these Officers shall be made to the Nominations and Awards Committee in accordance with relevant policies.
 - .2 WONCA Young Doctors' Movements (YDM) will elect the Young Doctors' representative with one vote for each YDM irrespective of the number of members, with subsequent review and ratification by Council.
 - .3 YDMs should develop and operate under such rules or bylaws as are considered necessary for the management of the affairs of the YDM, providing that they are consistent with the Bylaws of the Organization and are approved by Council.
 - .4 All nominations, however made, require that the nominee agrees in writing to accept the nomination and certifies that at the time of the proposed election at World Council, they will meet the definition of Young Doctor.

7 Voting and Ratification Procedure

- .1 The election and/or ratification of Officers, as required by the Bylaws, shall be taken in the following order:
 - .1 Regional Presidents
 - .2 The World President Elect
 - .3 Young Doctors' Representative
 - .4 Members at Large of the Executive Committee
- .2 The election of the World President Elect, Young Doctors' Representative and Members at Large of the Executive Committee shall be by ballot at meetings of World Council.
 - .1 World President Elect
 - .1 If only one nomination has been received at the time of closing of nominations, then that candidate shall be declared elected by Council.
 - .2 If there are only two nominations, then election shall be by a majority vote of those present and voting.
 - .3 If there are three or more nominations and no one received an absolute majority vote on the first ballot, then a second ballot shall be taken between the two candidates receiving the highest number of votes on the first ballot, providing, however, that if there is a tie for the second place, the candidate receiving the highest numbers and those tying for second place shall be included in the second ballot, and the balloting shall continue in a like manner until a majority is attained.
 - .4 If no nominations have been received at the time of closing of nominations, then nominations may be called from the floor at the Council meeting, provided that such nominations are made by the end of the first day of the meeting of Council and that appropriate supporting information is provided to the President and Chair of the Nominations and Awards Committee.
 - .2 Young Doctors' Representative
 - .1 The President shall announce if there is any requirement for a specific gender representative to be elected to satisfy the requirements of Article 12.2 having taken into account the nominations for Member at Large on Executive.
 - .2 If there is a requirement for a specific gender representative to be elected to satisfy the requirements of Article 12.2 and at least one appropriate nomination has not been received, then the President may declare that the Young Doctors' representative position shall remain vacant and be filled by appointment by Executive at a subsequent meeting as necessary to satisfy the requirements of Article 12.2.

- .3 If only one acceptable nomination has been received at the time of closing of nominations, then that candidate shall be declared elected by Council.
 - .4 If there are two nominations, then election shall be by a majority vote of those voting.
 - .5 If there are three or more nominations and no one received an absolute majority vote on the first ballot, then a second ballot shall be taken between the two candidates receiving the highest number of votes on the first ballot, providing, however, that if there is a tie for the second place, the candidate receiving the highest numbers and those tying for second place shall be included in the second ballot, and the balloting shall continue in a like manner until a majority is attained.
 - .6 The Young Doctors' Representative shall be required to meet the definition of Young Doctor as given in Article 2 at the time of his/her election to the position.
- .3 Members at Large of the Executive
- .1 The President shall announce the minimum number of women and men Members at Large required to be elected to satisfy the requirements of Article 12.2.
 - .2 Provided that sufficient nominations from women and men candidates have been received to allow the election of the required number of Members at Large, the election shall be conducted as follows:
 - .1 Voters shall cast votes for their three (3) candidates of choice.
 - .2 The scrutineers shall tally the votes received for all candidates and convey the results, in the order of votes received, to the President.
 - .3 The President shall declare elected the required number of women and men candidates according to the order of votes received and then any remaining successful candidates according to the absolute number of votes received, irrespective of gender.
 - .4 In the event of a tied vote, additional ballots shall be taken as required to complete the election of three (3) Members at Large as described above.

- .3 If sufficient nominations from candidates have not been received so as to allow the election of the required number of women and men Members at Large, then the President may call for further nominations from the floor of Council provided that such nominations are made by the end of the first day of the meeting of Council and that appropriate supporting information is provided to the President and Chair of the Nominations and Awards Committee. If sufficient nominations are thereby received, then an election may proceed as provided above.
- .4 If the requirements of Article 12.2 cannot be satisfied by the election of three (3) Members at Large, a Fourth Member at Large may be elected.
- .5 If sufficient nominations from women candidates have still not been received so as to allow the election of the required number of women and men Members at Large, then the President may declare that one or more Member at Large positions shall remain vacant and be filled by appointment by Executive at a subsequent meeting as necessary to satisfy the requirements of Article 12.2.

8 Death, Resignation or incapacity of World President, President World Elect, Members at Large and Young Doctors' Representative

- .1 In the event of the death, resignation or incapacity of the World President, or if the World President should become ineligible for the office, the World President Elect shall assume the office of World President for the unexpired portion of the World President's time, on completion of which shall fulfil the elected term of World President. In the event of the death, resignation or incapacity of the World President Elect, or if the World President Elect should become World President during the term of office as World President Elect, then Council shall elect another World President Elect for the unexpired portion of the appropriate term or terms, in such a manner as outlined in these Organizational Policies.
- .2 In the event of death, resignation or incapacity of any of the Members at Large or the Young Doctors' Representative then Council shall elect another Member at Large, or Young Doctors' Representative as appropriate, for the unexpired portion of the term of office, in such manner as here outlined. The Young Doctors' Movement may nominate a person who meets the definition of Young Doctor to serve in an interim capacity until a duly elected representative is determined. This nominee will have speaking but not voting rights.
- .3 The Responsible Officer shall call for nominations from Member Organizations for the vacant position or positions, notify the closing date for nominations, and at the same time inform members of Council that there will be an election by vote by members of Council to be held fifty six (56) days following the time notified for the closing of nominations. Nominations shall be closed fifty-six (56) days after the date of the call.

- .4 The Responsible Officer shall inform Member Organizations and members of Council the names of those so nominated together with a biographic sketch of each nominee no later than twenty eight (28) days after the closing of nominations.
- .5 The Responsible Officer shall conduct the postal vote as outlined in sub clause .3.3 above.
- .6 A member of the Executive Committee who is not a nominee shall be appointed by the Responsible Officer as scrutineer for the election and shall declare the successful candidate elected.

9. Death, resignation or incapacity of Regional Presidents

In the event of the death, resignation or incapacity of any Regional President or if any Regional President should become ineligible to continue to hold office, the Responsible Officer shall seek a nomination from the Member Organizations of the appropriate region or regions, for ratification by the Executive Committee. Such nomination shall satisfy the requirements Clause 10, Section 3.2 of these Organizational Policies.
